

17th Annual NNALEA Training Conference

Tribal Law Enforcement, Behavioral Health, Emergency Services and Private Sector Partnerships

September 9 – 11, 2009
Tulsa, Oklahoma

Hard Rock Hotel & Casino Tulsa

Join us in the heart of Indian Country for the 2009 Annual NNALEA National Training Conference, the premiere training event for Tribal law enforcement and emergency preparedness. Top experts will present cutting edge strategies, tactics and practices on major issues facing Indian Country today. Explore the latest trends and update your skills while networking with hundreds of your colleagues from across the country.

The venue for this year's conference is the Hard Rock Hotel & Casino Tulsa (formerly the Cherokee Casino Resort) in Tulsa, Oklahoma:

Hard Rock Hotel & Casino Tulsa
777 West Cherokee Street
Catoosa, Oklahoma
Phone: 800/760-6700
www.hardrockcasinotulsa.com

The hotel is offering NNALEA conference attendees the Government rate of $79/night plus state and local taxes. For hotel reservations call 800-760-6700 and request the group rate for the National Native American Law Enforcement Association (NNALEA). The cut-off date for the hotel rate is August 25, 2009.

17 hours of CLEET Credit for Oklahoma Law Enforcement

Registration Fee: $450

Learn more and register at www.nnalea.org

Questions? Call the NNALEA Office at 202.204-3065

Training Tracks

- 1) Emergency Management
- 2) Homeland Security, Behavioral Health and Social Networking
- 3) Boots on the Ground/ Law Enforcement Training
- 4) Executive Leadership Training